Creating and Editing

This section is targeted towards users who will be administering a Wiki or creating and editing content. If you'll only be using the Harvard Wiki as a viewer or subscriber, make sure to check out the “Getting Around Harvard Wikis” section.

If you'll be doing some creating and editing, you'll want to know more about each of the topics below in order to get the most out of your Wiki. To go to a specific topic, click on the link. To go through the topics one by one, start by clicking on the "Next" button below.

- Adding a space
- Permissions
- Adding and editing a page
- Authoring
